NEW introduction!

Out of this world, into your living space—Begonia Spacestars brings the mystery of the universe to life with foliage that shifts and sparkles like a sky full of stars.

Inspired by cosmic beauty, the leaves of Begonia Spacestars reveal ever-changing colours and patterns depending on the light, creating a dynamic and eye-catching effect. This highly versatile plant performs effortlessly both indoors and outdoors, thriving in sun or shade—even under cooler growing conditions. Its balanced vigour ensures it matches the pot size perfectly, making it an ideal combo filler while also standing strong as a standalone feature. Growers benefit from reduced crop times when grown under longer day lengths, combining efficiency with reliability. With its adaptability, visual appeal, and consistent performance, Begonia Spacestars is a modern plant that truly shines in any setting.
